When Croup Threatens

Quick relief of baby's croup often forestalls a serious situation when this dreaded disease comes in the late hours of night.

Members should keep a jar of Brax's Vapo-Mentha Salve on hand. When Croup threatens, this salve rubbed well into baby's throat, chest and under the arms, will relieve the choking, break congestion, and promote restful sleep. Take the place of soothing drugs. Used immediately by parents in combating croup, colds, pneumonia, etc. in children as well as grown-ups. 10c 50c and $1.50 at all drug stores or sent prepaid by

Brax's Drug Company

Social and Personal

Preston-Zittel

The following clipping from the Herald Dispatch, Huntington, West Virginia, will be read with interest here the groom being a nephew of Mrs. G. S. McKinney and Miss Minnie Zittel. "It says: Deep surprise and interest was occasioned by the marriage of Miss Mary Mildred Preston and Dennis Zittel Lowry, prominent young people of this city, the wedding having taken place yesterday at high noon at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. F. W. Castle, of the South Side, in the presence of the members of the immediate families with Dr. F. S. Pollitt reading the impressive service. The attendants were Miss Ernestine Preston, Miss Lowry, Mr. Clyde Lowry and Mr. Monroe McKinney. The bride wore a handsome suit of dark blue broad-cloth with hat and other accessories to harmonize. Her corsage was of American beauties. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Preston, of the South Side, and is a very lovely and attractive young woman, while the groom, who is the son of Mrs. T. S. Lowry, is widely and popularly known. He holds a lucrative position at the local Post Office. The happy couple left for a short trip to western points and upon their return will reside in this city.

Six O'clock Dinner

Mr. C. T. Wells entertained very delightfully with a stay dinner Friday evening at his home on the Four Mile road. A most elegant and tempting menu was served and the repast was greatly enjoyed by all present. Covers were laid for Rev. M. T. Chandler, Rev. J. A. McClintock, Mayor L. P. Evans, Messrs. R. E. 188 1/2 Acres Bluegrass Land

November 11, 1919

AT 10 A. M.

This is a dissolution sale of the old Raymond Shearer farm now belonging to James and John W. Shearer. This land is all in grass and has been for a number of years. It is located 10 miles north of Richmond, 1 mile from Brookstown school house. It is well watered and well fenced and has a good six room old fashion house, and good barn and all other out buildings. Has lots of good oak timber and a number of good cedar and locust posts. Lots of this land has never been plowed and is the best of tobacco land, and as good grazing as any farm in this county. It is just 1 mile from church and same distance from school and is only 1-4 mile from pike.
